A MESSAGE FROM THE COMMANDER

Let me welcome all of the members to the June newsletter. The only big and important thing that has been going on here at The Legion for the month of May is an election of new officers.

In the May newsletter, I gave a list of all that were seeking election. These names were either new people that would like to be elected or people that were running to be re-elected. We held the election on May 28. The polls opened at 5 pm and closed at 7 pm. Below is a list of the people that were elected to be officers for The American Legion.

Commander: Dewey Moss

Senior Vice Commander: Harrison Parker

Junior Vice Commanders:

Lee Oliver
Lee Parsons

Tom Phillips
T W Davis
Steven Johnson

Finance Officer:

Bob Oxford

I would like to welcome all new and re-elected members to the executive committee. I wish you all good luck.

I chose not to run for a fourth term. I thought someone else should have a chance to be Commander. I will still be around and available to help with things at The Legion.

The Fourth of July will be coming up soon. I am inviting everyone to come and enjoy the festivities. As usual we will have food and drinks available. We will have live music and about dark we can go to the back of The Legion and watch fireworks together. I look forward to seeing all of you here.

The June Post meetings will be held:

Executive: June 11 at 5:30 PM
General: June 25 at 6:00 PM

For God and Country,

Jim Lovain, Commander

Ladies are reminded to bring deserts for the general Post meetings held the last Thursday of each month.

During the May Executive Meeting, we nominated and voted on the new officers for the next fiscal year. We discussed the details of Girls and Boys State, including attendees, transportation, and logistics of the event. We also discussed committees and the current membership status and procedures for the Auxiliary.

All members were encouraged to get involved and to attend our meetings.

In the coming months, committee reports and volunteer hours, and upcoming projects will be discussed further.

Our Best Days Are Before Us,

Wanda Parker, Auxiliary President

"Howdy Ya'!!!"

"Increased demand, fewer volunteers endanger veteran honor guards' ability to provide funeral support." – Ken Olsen, May 2026 American Legion Magazine article (p.29).

Thank you to the new members who have signed up for our Honor Guard. Most of us are 'old timers' with a decade or two of experience participating. Please read the article and see if you're inspired to join in this most noble endeavor...

ALL of our officers were reinstated, with Ernie Oventrop voted in for Historian. (I don't recall ever having one!) He also helped tremendously with Carnival parking this past month, as did Reverend Ronnie and Miss Vicki!!

Summer is here and I hope you all have a good time enjoying some things that you want to do. We'll have our regular meetings the last Thursday at 4:30. We hope you will come with new ideas, enthusiasm and support.

Sing-cerely,

Anthony J. Robertson, SAL Commander
